

Roberto Ballardini

VP GLOBAL MANUFACTURING REINFORCEMENT MATERIALS

Roberto Ballardini joined Cabot Corporation in 1989 and has since held several key positions, most recently as Vice President of Global Manufacturing, Reinforcement Materials segment. Since joining the company, he has held a number of manufacturing leadership roles, including Facility General Manager of Cabot's Ravenna carbon black facility, Regional Director of Manufacturing, and Senior Director, Manufacturing Excellence Group for the Reinforcement Materials segment. Prior to joining Cabot, Roberto worked for Arcotronics. Roberto earned his MBA and a BS in Electrical Engineering from Bologna University. He also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of Ravenna Province Enterprises Association, President of the Chemical section of Confindustria Romagna, and President of the EMAS association between Ravenna's chemical companies.