

CRISTIAN SCAINI

Head of Offshore New Energies Business Development Enablers
Energy Manager of Saipem S.p.A.

Saipem

Based in Milan, Cristian is the Head of Offshore New Energies Business Development Enablers, and the Energy Manager of Saipem.

He joined Saipem in 1997, managing innovation and investment technological projects for large subsea pipelines installation, O&G subsea fields development, new vessels construction and for underwater technologies. Cristian was responsible for Offshore Technology Development and Intellectual Property offices, then he contributed to the creation of a new Corporate Innovation structure, as Projects Portfolio manager, defining the Corporate vision, setting the strategies and negotiating technology agreements. More recently, he managed the Innovation at Saipem Offshore E&C Division, acting also as Open Innovation Coordinator. Cristian holds a MSc degree in Aeronautical Engineering from Polytechnic of Milan and an MBA at Bocconi School of Management and MIP Graduate School of Business (Milan, IT). He was speaker at world-class conferences, and he hold 6 international patents.